$1,200 Stolen From Auburn Farm

Auburn police today were investigating a break-in at an Auburn auto firm which netted the thief or thieves more than $1,200 worth of parts. According to the manager, proprietor of Auburn Cheese Inc., on the Auburn Farm, the break-in occurred at approximately 11 p.m. on the night of the 1st or early morning of the 2nd. The break-in was discovered when Mr. Jones, owner of the business, entered the building about 9 a.m. and found the night guard asleep on a chair near the entrance.

Fellow Club Member Treats Rotarians to Lecture On Musical Composition, Singing

Members of the Lewiston Auburn Rotary Club had members of the Musical Composition and Singing. As a result of their efforts, the club members were invited to perform at the club's next meeting. The members of the club were pleased with the performance and have plans to invite the performers to perform again in the near future.

Night Hawk Was Bitten by Nest

An Auburn woman reported yesterday that a night hawk, which had been in the nest for many years, was last seen alive in the nest. The hawk was found dead in the nest and has been autopsied. According to Dr. Smith, the hawk was killed by a poisoning agent.

More Wet Weather Forecast

Clouds and the threat of more wet weather are expected in the Auburn area today. The Auburn weather bureau predicts that the area will see more wet weather today, with a high of 70 degrees. The bureau also predicts that the area will see more wet weather tomorrow, with a high of 70 degrees.

Sailor Fined $100, Loses Right to Drive in Maine

Following an early morning accident, a sailor from Mainesport, Augusta, was fined $100 and had his license suspended for three months. The sailor, who was driving a truck, lost control of the vehicle and collided with a ÒPepsi ColaÓ delivery truck, causing damage to both vehicles. The sailor was not injured in the accident.

Young Lewiston Cyclist Hospitalized After Bike Hit by Pipe Protruding From Truck

Prema, 13, of Lewiston, was hospitalized after being struck by a pipe protruding from a truck. The pipe, which was about 20 feet long, was protruding from the truck's rear wheel. The cyclist, who was riding his bicycle, was thrown into the air and landed on the pipe, causing injuries to his head and arm.

Underwater Search, Rescue Unit of CD Is Reorganized

A recommendation of the Androscoggin County Underwater Search, Rescue Unit of CD is reorganized. The unit's mission is to provide a comprehensive search and rescue service for the Androscoggin River and its tributaries. The unit's equipment includes a boat, a submersible, and a search and rescue vehicle.

New Iown Cardioverter

New ‘Lown Cardioverter’ Will Enable Heart Patients To Resume More Normal Life

With the addition of a ‘Lown Cardioverter’ to the equipment at Central Maine Hospital, patients suffering from heart failure will now have a much better chance of returning to normal life. The new equipment consists of a heart stimulator, a respirator, and a shock device. The heart stimulator is a small device that is placed on the patient's chest. The respirator is a machine that helps the patient breathe. The shock device is a device that is used to shock the heart if it stops beating.

Underwater Search, Rescue Unit of CD Is Reorganized

A recommendation of the Androscoggin County Underwater Search, Rescue Unit of CD is reorganized. The unit's mission is to provide a comprehensive search and rescue service for the Androscoggin River and its tributaries. The unit's equipment includes a boat, a submersible, and a search and rescue vehicle.

Sailor Fined $100, Loses Right to Drive in Maine

Following an early morning accident, a sailor from Maineport, Augusta, was fined $100 and had his license suspended for three months. The sailor, who was driving a truck, lost control of the vehicle and collided with a ÒPepsi ColaÓ delivery truck, causing damage to both vehicles. The sailor was not injured in the accident.

Young Lewiston Cyclist Hospitalized After Bike Hit by Pipe Protruding From Truck

Prema, 13, of Lewiston, was hospitalized after being struck by a pipe protruding from a truck. The pipe, which was about 20 feet long, was protruding from the truck's rear wheel. The cyclist, who was riding his bicycle, was thrown into the air and landed on the pipe, causing injuries to his head and arm.